Credit Life & Accident and Sickness Insurance

Why Take the Risk?

Who will make your loan payments if you can't? That's a worry you won't have to face with Payment Protection Credit Insurance. If you die or become disabled due to a covered illness or accident, your loan payments may be reduced or paid off.

Simple Eligibility.

No physical exam is required to qualify, though a few simple health questions may be necessary.

No Additional Bills.

Don't worry about additional bills to pay; your premium will be included in your monthly loan payment.

Rest Easy.

With Payment Protection, you can rest easy knowing your benefits can be paid in addition to any other insurance or company protection you may have.

Act Today.

Protect your loan every time you borrow. Limitations and exclusions apply. For details about coverage and costs see your loan representative today!

Protection you can count on.

Payment Protection can help safeguard your loan – and give you peace of mind. It's help you can count on when you need it most. And it's convenient and easy to qualify.
